This page relates to volume 28 running from name Howard to name Inglethorp. Famulatrix Medicine 1804 (reprinted as Receipts in Modern Cookery 1820), and Men and Manners (third ed 16f81eb0d6

Listings are posted as bulleted lists, with footnotes taken from the DNB summaries published in 1904. The listings and notes are taken from scanned text that is often corrupt and in need of correction. Not all the entries on the list correspond to actual DNB articles; some are “redirects” and there are a few articles devoted to families rather than individuals. 16f81eb0d6

Book your place for each upcoming meeting below. 16f81eb0d6 The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Miscellany reported in its April 1824, issue: An Oriental Club has just been established in London, of which the Duke of Wellington is President, and upwards of forty individuals of rank and talent connected with our Eastern empire are appointed a Committee. The following is the Prospectus... The Oriental club will be established at a house in a convenient situation. The utmost economy shall be observed in the whole establishment, and the subscription for its foundation and support shall not exceed fifteen pounds entrance, and six pounds per annum. There will be a commodious reading room... A library will be gradually formed, chiefly of works on oriental subjects. The coffee room of the club will be established on the most economical principles, similar to those of the United Service and Union. There will be... 16f81eb0d6
