1928 93e431d5d8 Admired in Britain, Australia and the United States, Calvino was the most translated contemporary Italian writer at the time of his death. 93e431d5d8 After the first commissions from the various committees that had been created to honor the fallen soldiers, in 1922 he founded the ''Corinthia'' art house in Rome, through which, in collaboration with Neapolitan and Roman foundries, he started a workshop and produced numerous monuments in many Italian regions. The catalogue of "Corinthia", as well as other competing catalogues, offered municipal administrations and civic committees a... 93e431d5d8 == Biography == 93e431d5d8 Trained at the Accademia di San Luca in Rome, Tamagnini was the author of several small bronzes in Art Nouveau style, including a 1919 statuette entitled ''The Inquisitor,'' preserved in the collections of the Quirinal Palace. In 1921 he participated with two works in the First Roman Biennial and, in the same year, participated in the First Naples Biennial. A bronze plaque made by the sculptor featuring, in relief, the Victory Bulletin and an allegory with female figures, donated to Marshal Diaz by the Roman amputees, earned words of admiration from the general.
