Some episodes from her childhood (when her father hits her because she wants to sing and not to study), her artistic career, and family, are spoken during an interview granted to a journalist a few hours before singing at the Festival of 1989. d85c3c6e77 The event is also referred to as "Live 8 Rome" or "Live 8 Italy". d85c3c6e77 He quit his studies early to devote himself to his true passion, the arts, more specifically playing music and singing – though initially with little success. From an early age, he would wear make-up and cross-dress. He replied to the criticisms he received (including the recurring insult Sei uno zero! – "You're a zero!") by taking on the pseudonym Renato Zero. He recorded his first songs in 1965: "Tu", "Sì", "Il deserto", "La solitudine", which were never issued. His first published single, "Non basta sai/In mezzo ai guai" (1967), sold a total of 20 copies and was quickly forgotten. d85c3c6e77 Beatrice Borromeo was a collaborator on this show from 2006 to 2008, and Francesca Fagnani served as an investigative journalist from 2006 to 2010. Journalist Marco Travaglio was a permanent guest on the show, which officially ended its run on 9 June 2011 with the last episode being shown on 28 June of that year. d85c3c6e77 == Life and career == d85c3c6e77
