Rosemary visited Chennai in January, 2007 I presented a copy to her. As I reworked this material, I could sense the love and compassion of Rosemary for the Lord and for His body, the church on every page. The final result is what you now hold in your hand. Although \"One Holy Passion\" was originally intended for a specific church to use for a specific period of time, it can now be used by any individual or group and can be started any time of the year. When Sis. Rosemary Lester. Cooper and Bill Bright, had it translated into Tamil, printed, and distributed. May this prayer and fasting guide lead you on your own personal spiritual journey and at the same time lead you to pray and fast for missions and missionaries around the world. I edited the guide, added the material by Dr. In addition to the Daily Devotional Guide I included in this work the same supplemental instructional material that was in the Tamil to help believers understand the discipline of prayer and fasting from the Christian context. \" Immediately, I recognized this material as something that could be as inspirational and meaningful to the church in India as it was to my home church family. Our home church was nearing completion of a time of prayer and fasting inspired by her devotional guide, \"One Holy Passion. Because Rosemary Lester wrote this Daily Devotional Guide to speak to the members of our church during our special 40-day period of prayer and fasting leading up to Easter Sunday, 2006, it was my task as Editor to preserve as much of the original content as possible, while making \"One Holy Passion\" meaningful and relevant to as many people as possible. Finally, I added more quotes from respected Christians on the subject of prayer and fasting, and some information on the people, culture and religions from around the world. After returning from the mission field in India for another visit to the US, I was presented with a copy of a prayer guide written by the wife of my Pastor, Sis. Frederick Osborn India Field Director Bibles for All Ministries. Those who use this guide for strength, direction, and exhortation will, I believe, find Rosemary's loving words echoing the Holy Spirit's voice encouraging them to persevere to the end of their own 40-day spiritual journey. May God bless all who surrender themselves in \"One Holy Passion\" for His glory 2198604466

FASTING, like PRAYER, is a part of the word of God. In the name of Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we, therefore, dedicate this work to Jesus. It is NOT the purpose of this book, or any of the other articles on the subject of fasting, to leave an impression that this practice is the Scriptural cure-all for spiritual, moral and bodily complaints. May the reader be blessed by them. This work has grown to such an extent, we have had to give up the revival auditorium. \" II Thess. Shall we “STAND FAST” on this IRREVOCABLE “TRADITION,” which we have been taught in the WORD, since it is indisputably a part of the WORD of God. This was done solely for the purpose of glorifying our most lovable Jesus. “STAND FAST, AND hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. We are dealing with a tremendous portion of the Word—able to open up an avenue to tremendous power and glory with JESUS for the mutual welfare of His body, and the bringing of a mighty last day revival. Let us pray that it will “have free course, AND BE GLORIFIED,” in its proper place in order that JESUS may receive more glory and honor from His children. Comfort your hearts; and stablish you in every good word and work. To dispute this would be as foolish as denying water is wet. To make it even easier to grasp, the author has gone to additional expense in constructing drawings, diagrams and charts for numerous cuts to bring forth quickly through the eye-gate, this precious vital truth of orthodox Christianity. 2:15, 17; 3:1. May it bring praise and honor of Him. The purpose of this volume is to popularize, perhaps one of the most downtrodden of all Biblical subjects, and assist in the author’s small way to reestablish this part of the Gospel, bringing it out in all its glorious aspects. We do not emphasize fasting for the purpose of bragging, or for such great merit that it would be boasting before our God, but we are pressing it forward with such tempo so that the children of the Bridegroom will become more quickly and fully prepared for the closing of this Holy Spirit dispensation. Emphasis is given the subject for the purpose of quickly enlightening God’s people who seem to be “falling away” from the old-time faith, and to prevent the unhappy drift towards modernism that is so sweeping the land. The author is devoting his entire time to the work of fasting, even discontinuing most of the traveling speaking engagements, in order to assure it greater success and promotion over the world for the mutual welfare of Christendom and the Kingdom of God. Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word; of the Lord may have free course, and be GLORIFIED, even as it is with you. By the proper utilization of fasting, praying, crying and mourning for souls, and by going into the FASTING-PRAYER without a selfish motive, many pillars of the FAITH can pull together in this travail to such an extent that when tragedy, destruction, persecution, and the rest of the last-day signs approach us more closely, we will have at our disposal a most effective weapon to carry us through for the glory of Jesus. Revelation 22:17-21 2198604466

” Where there is a lack of perfection and refinement among God’s people, as there is today, this power and the gifts of the Holy Spirit cannot very well be received by prayer alone. The best means of reaching that goal is to do as Paul asked us to do, follow him “in fastings often. It actually requires a further process of purification and sanctified living to obtain and retain the gifts of the Spirit than otherwise. Consecrated fasting acts as a refining fire to the saint of God, and enables him to become purified and cleansed to such an extent he can obtain the power and the gifts of the Spirit. Every single new testament church was founded in fasting and prayer. Every evidence points to the fact that the early church and apostles put into practice what the church has failed to do today. The progress so far is fine, but the deceiver still has many of us lulled to sleep, deluded, and self-satisfied, far from the goal Jesus intended for us to reach. Therefore, they had an experience that overshadows ours. Even in the days of the apostles, they too, found it necessary at times to employ this method to arrest the flesh and become refined in order to receive this power. “And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you:” To obtain the “power,” the commandment given to us by Jesus: “Tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem (your present city) until ye be endued with power from on high” (Luke 24:49) must be obeyed. We believe many put into practice the prophet’s-length fast and obtained the power and gifts. After Jesus said, “I send the promise of the Father upon you” He also told them, “Tarry. It is made so simple and easy of accomplishment that anyone can have an experience as dynamic as those of any of the apostles and followers of Jesus Christ. They were in a state of perfection that far exceeded ours today. (If they can be received in this manner, I ask, where are they. Many Christians claim the experience of Acts 2:4, but they have not attained the experience provided for in Luke 24:49. ” This volume endeavors to take what has generally been overlooked, and reveal, perhaps for the first time in detailed form, the secret of the early church. Many do not seek God far enough, and in quite the right manner to allow the Holy Spirit to exert His power, even though He has been received. If you have the Holy Spirit, He still may not have sufficient sway in your life for you to have the advanced experience of power and the gifts of the Spirit. Acts 14:23. Without following their example and deeds, we are without their mighty experiences.
